

THE BROKER IS LOOKING FOR A COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

If you can't wait to apply your communication skills and experience to support our work, then read on quickly! The Broker, a Netherlands-based but globally operating knowledge brokering organisation for social impact and international development, is looking for a Communications Intern to join its team.

The challenge

As the Communications Intern, you will work closely with our Communication and Innovation Broker, playing a key role in amplifying our message across platforms. You will be responsible for creating engaging content, enhancing our social media presence, and supporting the team with creative design and multimedia production. You are doing this in close collaboration with our young and enthusiastic team.

Who you are

You are a creative, proactive, and resourceful individual with a passion for social impact and international development. You bring strong communication skills and a sharp eye for design, with a knack for turning complex ideas into clear and compelling content.

Personal Attributes:

- Creative and Innovative: You're full of ideas and know how to translate our message into impactful visuals and messages.
- Detail-Oriented: You have a keen eye for detail and strive for high-quality output.
- Proactive and Independent: You take initiative and work efficiently, whether individually or as part of a team.
- Passionate about Social Impact: You are motivated by the opportunity to contribute to meaningful social change.

Qualifications and Experience:

- Currently pursuing or recently completed a degree in Communications, International Development, Journalism, Marketing, or a related field.
- Experience in graphic design, with proficiency in tools like Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign) or Canva.
- Proven experience in managing social media platforms.
- Experience with video and photo editing software (e.g., Premiere Pro, Final Cut, etc.).
- Strong command of English, both written and spoken.
- You must be located in The Netherlands and willing to travel to our office in Amsterdam twice a week.

Who we are

The Broker is a knowledge brokering organisation based in the Netherlands. Founded in 2007, The Broker is a 'Stichting' (non-profit) focusing on bridging the gap between research, policy, and practice in the fields of international development, governance, and sustainability. The organisation serves as a platform for sharing knowledge, insights, and innovations to inform policy-making and contribute to positive social change. The Broker works with a network of experts, researchers, policymakers, practitioners, and organisations from around the world to facilitate dialogue, exchange ideas, and promote evidence-based decision-making.

What we offer

- Part-time position: 24 hours a week minimum, to be discussed.
- Duration of 3-6 months, to be discussed.
- Commute reimbursement.
- A dynamic and supportive team located in Amsterdam.
- The opportunity to gain hands-on experience, grow your skills and make an impact in the fields of international development and knowledge brokering.
